

Historical Studies Generic DP for Concentration in American History

Concentration	Credits
Two Introductory courses focused on American History	8
Four introductory history courses that consider different time frames, geographic scopes and approaches to history	16
+ Historiography: Research and methods	4
+ Six advanced level courses that cover various topics in American history	24
+ Capstone or Thesis Project in American History	4

Total credits in concentration: 56 (advanced level 32)

General Learning	Credits
A course in Mathematics	4
A course in Basic Communications	4
Three courses in non-history Gen Ed areas	12

Total credits in general learning: 20

Additional Courses	Credits
Educational Planning	4
Electives in any area of the students' choice. These choices can include additional American History or other History courses. Thirteen of these credits must be completed at the Advanced level.	44