

Historical Studies Generic DP for Concentration in European History

| Concentration   | Credits |
|--|----------------|
| Two Introductory European history courses  | 8              |
| Four introductory history courses that consider different time frames, geographic scopes and approaches to history | 16             |
| + Historiography: Research and methods   | 4              |
| + Six advanced level courses that cover various topics in American history   | 24             |
| + Capstone or Thesis Project in American History   | 4              |

Total credits in concentration: 56 (advanced level 32)

| General Learning                   | Credits |
|---|----------------|
| A course in Mathematics                   | 4              |
| A course in Basic Communications          | 4              |
| Three courses in non-history Gen Ed areas | 12             |

Total credits in general learning: 20

| Additional Courses   | Credits |
|---|----------------|
| Educational Planning  | 4              |
| Electives in any area of the students' choice. These choices can include additional European History or other History courses. Thirteen of these credits must be completed at the Advanced level. | 44             |