

SOCIAL STUDIES Content Area Degree Planning Guidelines

A minimum of 30 semester credits in Social Studies, the equivalent of a major, is required. A minimum grade point average of 3.0 overall and in Social Studies is expected. As part of your planning process for the Master of Arts in Teaching Program, please complete this form with your advisor. The courses listed below are examples of the kinds of courses that would fulfill the 30 semester credit hours in your content area. These courses or their equivalents should be a minimum of 3 credits each unless otherwise noted. A minimum of 6 of the 30 credits should be completed at or above the 300 level.

Required Social Studies Courses (30 credits)	Your Equivalent – Include Course Title and Description	Grade	Completion Date	Institution	# of Credits
American History (9 cr.) Examples: American History 1 Modern American History Constitutional History of the United States
European History (6 cr.) Examples: History of Eastern Europe I The World at War, 1939-45
World History (6 cr.) South American History History of Japan
Economics (3 cr.) Examples: Principles of Economics I: Microeconomics Principles of Economics II: Macroeconomics
Geography (3 cr.) Examples: Physical Geography Cultural Geography
Government (3 cr.) Examples: U.S. Government Comparative Government					